THE RED CLOUD COMMISSION.

Ex-Governor Fletcher, of Missouri, announced yes, terday that many serious alterations had to be made in the report of the Red Cloud Commissioners, so that it will not be finally completed until to-day. Gevernor Fletcher, it is said, has used some very "plain English" in this report in regard to the mismanagement of the Indian Department.

TRIED TO HANG HERSELF. On Tuesday night, at about half-past eleven o'clock, Officer Seibel, who was acting as doorman in the Eighth precinct station house, was attracted to a cell occupied by a woman named Maggle Tynan. He there found that she had attempted to hang herself, and was auspended by the neck to the door of the cell. The officer cut her down, and nedical assistance having been rendered by lir. Walker, the woman recovered.

OF ALL THE PROVINCIAL TOWNS IN THE SOUTH of France, the town of Pau is unquestionably the most favored. Numerous visitors, whose health has been improved by a residence of one or more winters under the curative influence of its sedative climate, have permanently established its well deserved reputation. The mildness of its temperature, and its proximity to all the thermal Pyrenean stations, recommend its sain eligible wintering place to all persons suffering from a weak constitution or showing premonitory symptoms inpending consumption. A variety of amusements, such as fox hunting, picturesque excursions, polo, theatre, concert, balls, casino, borse races, &c., give great saimation to the town, and allord great attraction to visitors, and to pleasure seekers generally. There are places of worship for all religious denominations, comfortable hosts, villas, houses, and private apartment to be let, our moderate terms. References and information can be obtained, free of charge, at the Syndicate office, 7, Rue des Cordellers.
